The Company's Chairman is an independent Non-Executive Director.

The composition of the Board is reviewed on an ongoing basis having regard to the growth of the Company's business.

1.3 Independence of Directors

When determining the independent status of a Director, the Board has adopted the definition of independence as set out in the ASXCGC Recommendations. Accordingly, when determining the independence of a Non-Executive Director, the Board considers whether the Director:

- is, or has been, employed in an executive capacity by the Company or any of its subsidiaries and there has not been a period of at least three years between ceasing such employment and serving on the Board;
- is, or has within the last three years been, a partner, director or senior employee of a provider of material professional services to the Company or any of its subsidiaries;

In each case, the materiality of the interest, position, association or relation is assessed to determine whether it might interfere, or might reasonably be seen to interfere, with the Director's capacity to bring an independent judgement to bear on issues before the Board and to act in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders generally. Materiality is considered from the perspective of the Company and its Group companies, the persons or organisations with which the Director has an affiliation and from the perspective of the Director.

Services rendered are provided by the relevant related party company on normal commercial terms and conditions and at market rates. In practice, Mr Jose Coutinho as a Non-Executive Director provides oversight and advice.

See the table below setting out the Karoon workforce gender profile:

	Female %
Group (includes administration/technical/specialists)	42%
Senior executives ¹	29%
Board	12%
