Performance Rights Plan Rules

Background

- A. The directors of the Company seek to reward past contributions of Eligible Employees and provide an incentive for future performance.
- B. The Plan provides a mechanism for the Company to issue Performance Rights to Eligible Employees entitling them to be issued Shares and incentivising them to advance the interests of the Company and its shareholders.

1. Purpose of the Plan

The purpose of the Plan is to:

attract and retain quality Eligible Employees;

motivate Eligible Employees by enabling them to share in any growth in the value of the Company and encouraging them to achieve personal and business targets, improve the performance of the Company and its returns to shareholders;

advance the interests of all shareholders by motivating the Eligible Employees and encouraging growth; and provide a mechanism for Eligible Employees to share the rewards of the success of the Company through the grant of Performance Rights.

2. Commencement and operation of the plan

Commencement

The Plan will commence operation on the date determined by the Board.

3. Offer of Performance Rights

Board discretion

Subject to these rules, the Board may in its absolute discretion from time to time make Offers to any Eligible Employee on the terms set out in this Plan and subject to any Performance Conditions and any additional conditions the Board determines.

Form of Offer

The Board will make an Offer on terms which the Board may, in its discretion from time to time, determine. Any Offer will state:

- 3.1.1 the maximum number of Performance Rights offered;
- 3.1.2 the period for acceptance of the Offer;
- 3.1.3 any Performance Conditions and any other specific terms and conditions applicable to each Performance Right and to the Offer;
- 3.1.4 the Expiry Date;
- 3.1.5 any Disposal Restrictions that apply to any Shares that are acquired as a result of the exercise of each Performance Right; and
- 3.1.6 any restrictions on the method of delivery of the Shares to be delivered on exercise of any Performance Right, such as that the Shares must be acquired on market

Accompanying documents

The Offer must be accompanied by these rules and any other documents and information or undertakings required by ASIC or under the Corporations Act.

Number of Performance Rights

The number of Performance Rights offered to an Eligible Employee shall be determined by the Board.

Offers personal

Subject to rule 3.6, an Offer is personal to the Eligible Employee to whom it is made and, accordingly, Performance Rights may be granted only to the Eligible Employee to whom the Offer is made.

Nominee

3.1.7 Upon receipt of an Offer, an Eligible Employee may, by notice in writing to the Board, nominate an Associate of the Eligible Employee (Nominee) in whose favour the Eligible Employee wishes to renounce the Offer.

3.1.8 Where an Eligible Employee provides a nomination in accordance with rule 3.1.7, the Board may decide, in its absolute discretion, whether or not to accept that renunciation in favour of a Nominee.

3.1.9 Where the Board accepts a nomination provided in accordance with rule 3.1.7, the Eligible Employee remains bound by these rules and must procure that the Nominee agrees to be bound by these rules, with all references to an Eligible Employee or Participant (as the case may require) to be read as a reference to the Nominee.

4. Acceptance of offer

Form of acceptance

An Eligible Employee who receives an Offer may accept it by delivering written notice of acceptance of the Offer to the Company (Applicant). An Offer may be accepted in whole or in part. An Offer not accepted by the Eligible Employee will lapse unless the Board determines otherwise.

When Offer may not be accepted

An Offer cannot be accepted, and no Performance Rights will be issued, if at the date the Offer would otherwise be accepted:

- 4.1.1 the Applicant is no longer an Eligible Employee;
- 4.1.2 the Applicant has given notice of his or her resignation as an Eligible Employee; or
- 4.1.3 the Applicant has been given notice of dismissal from employment by a Group Company.

Continue eligibility

No Performance Rights will be issued by the Company if, after acceptance of the Offer but prior to the grant of Performance Rights, any of the matters in clause are applicable at any time to the Applicant.

Participant bound by rules

On delivery to the Company of written notice of acceptance of the Offer and acceptance of the application by the Company an Applicant becomes a Participant and is bound by these rules.

5. Grant of Performance Rights

Grant of Performance Rights

Subject to rule , the Company shall, within five business days, after receiving a written notice of acceptance from an Applicant, grant to the Applicant the Performance Rights the subject of the acceptance.

Certificates

The Company may issue to a Participant one or more certificates evidencing the Performance Rights granted to the Participant and setting out:

- 5.1.1 the number of Performance Rights granted;
- 5.1.2 the date of the grant;
- 5.1.3 any Performance Conditions;
- 5.1.4 the Expiry Date; and
- 5.1.5 any other relevant conditions to be attached to the Performance Rights or the Shares.

No consideration

Subject to the Board's discretion to require payment of nominal consideration for the grant of a Performance Right, no consideration will be payable on the grant of a Performance Right.

6. Nature of Performance Rights

One Share per Performance Right

Each Performance Right entitles the Participant who is the holder to subscribe or acquire for and be issued or transferred one Share.

Nature of Performance Rights

Except as otherwise provided for in the Plan, nothing in the Plan:

- 6.1.1 confers on any Employee the right to receive an Offer;
- 6.1.2 confers on any Participant the right to continue as an Employee;
- 6.1.3 affects any rights which a Group Company may have to terminate the employment of any Participant;
- 6.1.4 may be used to increase damages in any action brought against a Group Company in respect of a termination of any Participant's employment; or
- 6.1.5 gives an Eligible Employee a legal or beneficial interest in any Share, other security or other property by virtue of acquiring or holding a Performance Right.

Performance Rights not quoted

The Company will not seek official quotation of any Performance Rights.

7. Vesting of Performance Rights

Vesting

- 7.1.1 A Performance Right (which has not otherwise lapsed in accordance with rule 8) will vest in a Participant:
 - (a) on any date after the first anniversary of the Grant Date, provided that the Performance Conditions notified to the Participant by the Board pursuant to rule 3.1.2 and 3.1.3 are satisfied or waived by the Board; or
 - (b) where the Performance Right vests in accordance with rule 3.1.4.
- 7.1.2 The Board will notify a Participant within a reasonable time after a Performance Right has vested and the date that vesting occurred.
- 7.1.3 A Participant may only exercise a vested Performance Right (that has not otherwise lapsed in accordance with rule 8) within 2 years of the date that the Performance Right vests as notified by the Board.

Accelerated Vesting

- 7.1.4 The Board may, in its absolute discretion, determine that all or a specified number of a Participant's unvested Performance Rights vest where:
 - (a) the Participant dies;
 - (b) the Participant ceases to be employed by a Group Company, by reason of Redundancy, Retirement, Retrenchment or Total and Permanent Disability; or
 - (c) the Company passes a resolution for voluntary winding up or an order is made for the compulsory winding up of the Company.
- 7.1.5 If within 30 days of an event occurring under rule 7.1.4 the Board determines that any Performance Right does not vest, or where no determination is made, the Performance Right will lapse, unless the Board determines otherwise.

Takeover Bid and change of Control events

If the Board determines that:

- 7.1.6 there has been a change of Control of the Company;
- 7.1.7 the replacement of a majority of the Board is imminent; or
- 7.1.8 a bidder who did not have a Relevant Interest in more than 50% of the Company's issued Shares has acquired (or become entitled to acquire) a Relevant Interest in more than 50% of the Company's issued Shares, whether by Takeover Bid or otherwise, then, unless otherwise determined by the Board, the Company may notify each Participant in writing that a percentage amount of his or her unvested Performance Rights have vested on the basis of the pro-rata achievement of the Performance Conditions and, upon receipt of that notice, the Participant may exercise all or any of his or her Performance Rights up to the amount of Performance Rights specified in the notice and in accordance with rule 10.

8. Lapse of Performance Rights

Unvested Performance Rights

A Performance Right that has not vested will lapse upon the earliest of:

- 8.1.1 a failure to meet the Performance Conditions by the dates or times specified in those conditions;
- 8.1.2 the Expiry Date;
- 8.1.3 the Performance Right lapsing in accordance with rule 10 due to an authorised dealing with the Performance Right;
- 8.1.4 the date the Board determines that the Performance Right will lapse because the Participant (in the Board's opinion):
 - (a) has breached a material obligation under the Plan;
 - (b) has committed an act of fraud or serious misconduct in relation to the affairs of a Group Company (whether or not charged with an offence) or gross dereliction of duty;
 - (c) has become insolvent, declared himself or herself or become bankrupt or entered into administration or does something or has something done which prevents the Participant from or may result in the Participant being unable to properly perform his duties; or
 - (d) has done any act which brings or could bring a Group Company into disrepute; and
- 8.1.5 the Participant ceasing to be an Employee of a Group Company (unless the Participant ceases to be employed by a Group Company, by reason of the Participant's death, Redundancy, Retirement, Retrenchment or Total and Permanent Disability); and

8.1.6 the fifth anniversary of the Grant Date.

Vested Performance Rights

A Performance Right that has vested but not been validly exercised will lapse upon the earlier to occur of:

8.1.7 the Expiry Date;

8.1.8 the Participant ceasing to be an Employee (unless the Participant ceases to be employed by a Group Company, by reason of the Participant's death, Redundancy, Retirement, Retrenchment or Total and Permanent Disability);

8.1.9 the Performance Right lapsing in accordance with rule due to an unauthorised dealing with the Performance Right;

8.1.10 the date the Board determines that the Performance Right will lapse because the Participant (in the Board's opinion):

- (a) has breached a material obligation under the Plan;
- (b) has committed an act of fraud or serious misconduct in relation to the affairs of a Group Company (whether or not charged with an offence) or gross dereliction of duty;
- (c) has become insolvent, declared himself or become bankrupt or entered into administration or does something or has something done which prevents the Participant from or may result in the Participant being unable to properly perform his duties; or
- (d) has done any act which brings a Group Company into disrepute; and

8.1.11 the fifth anniversary of the Grant Date.

Cessation of rights

On a Performance Right lapsing, all rights of a Participant in respect of the Performance Right shall cease.

9. Dealings with Performance Rights

No dealing in Performance Rights

A Participant must not, without the prior approval of the Board, dispose of, grant any Security Interest over or otherwise deal with any Performance Rights or any interest in any Performance Rights, and any such Security Interest or disposal or dealing will not be recognised by the Company.

Performance Rights lapse on unauthorised dealings

Where the Participant purports to deal in a Performance Right other than in accordance with rule the Performance Right immediately lapses.

10. Exercise of Performance Rights

Form of exercise

A Performance Right which has vested and has not lapsed may be exercised by the Participant delivering to the Company Secretary an Exercise Notice signed by the Participant and the Certificate or Certificates (if any).

Multiples

A Participant must exercise Performance Rights in multiples of 1,000 or such other multiple as the Board determines and notifies to the Participant unless the Participant exercises all Performance Rights to be exercised by him or her at the time.

Multiple exercise

The exercise by a Participant of only some of the Performance Rights held by the Participant shall not affect the Participant's right to exercise its other Performance Rights at a later date.

Death or incapacity

If a Participant dies or becomes legally incapacitated before the Performance Rights granted to that Participant lapse, the Participant's Legal Personal Representative may exercise the Participant's rights under the Plan and shall be deemed to be a Participant for the purposes of these rules, subject to the prior production to the Company of such evidence as would be required to permit the Legal Personal Representative to become registered as a shareholder in respect of Shares held by the Eligible Employee.

Certificates

Where a Participant submits an Exercise Notice in respect of the Performance Rights covered by a Certificate, the Company shall cancel that Certificate and, if any Performance Rights which have not lapsed remain unexercised, may issue a Certificate which evidences the remaining number of Performance Rights held by the Participant.

Delivery of Shares

Subject to these rules and the Listing Rules, the Company must issue a Share or acquire on behalf of the Participant and transfer a Share on exercise of a Performance Right within a reasonable time after a Participant validly exercises a Performance Right in accordance with these rules. . The Company must comply with any restrictions on the method of delivery of Shares on exercise of the Performance Right specified in the Offer relating to that Performance Right under rule 3.2.7. Subject to such a restriction, the Company may deliver a Share by issuing new Shares or procuring a transfer of Shares.

Shares rank equally

Shares issued or transferred to the Participant on the exercise of Performance Rights will rank equally with all existing Shares on and from the date of issue in respect of all rights issues, bonus share issues and dividends which have a record date for determining entitlements on or after the date of issue of those Shares.

Quotation of Shares

The Company shall apply to ASX for quotation of Shares issued on exercise of Performance Rights if other Shares of the Company are officially quoted at that time, but quotation of such Shares cannot be guaranteed.

Trust

Where Performance Rights have been exercised:

- (a) the Company may instruct the trustee of a trust formed for this purpose (Trustee) to subscribe for, or acquire or allocate, Shares for the benefit of the Participant;
- (b) the Company will pay to the Trustee such amount as is necessary for that purpose having regard to the exercise of the Performance Right and the terms of the trust deed

11. Restriction on disposal of shares

Restriction period

The Board may impose conditions on the sale, transfer, disposal or other dealings with any Share acquired through the exercise of a Performance Right.

Enforcement of Restriction Period

The Company may implement any procedure it considers appropriate or desirable for the purpose of preventing a contravention of rule . Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Company may refuse to register a transfer of Shares acquired by a Participant under the Plan that would involve a contravention of rule and may instruct its share registry to apply a Holding Lock to the Shares while the Shares are subject to the restriction on disposal under rule .

No disposal during Trading Halt

If the shares of the Company are subject to a Trading Halt applied by ASX, the Participant must not sell, transfer, dispose of or otherwise deal with any Share acquired as a result of the exercise of that Performance Right until the end of the Trading Halt.

Enforcement of Trading Halt

The Company may implement any procedure it considers appropriate or desirable for the purpose of preventing a contravention of rule . Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Company may refuse to register a transfer of Shares acquired by a Participant under the Plan that would involve a contravention of rule and may instruct its share registry to apply the Holding Lock to the Shares for the duration of the Trading Halt.

12. New issues, reconstructions of capital and external opportunities

Participation in new issues

12.1.1 Participants will not be entitled to participate in any new issue of securities in the Company unless:

- (a) their Performance Rights have vested under the Plan; and
- (b) they have exercised their Performance Rights in accordance with rule 11.1 prior to the record date for the determination of entitlements to the new issue and participate as a result of being holders of Shares.

12.1.2 The Company must give to Participants in accordance with the Listing Rules, notice of any issue of securities before the record date for determining entitlements to the issue.

Bonus issues

If the Company makes (whether before or after the Performance Rights have vested) a pro-rata or bonus issue of Shares or other securities to existing shareholders (other than an issue in lieu or in satisfaction of dividends or by way of dividend reinvestment) and no Share has been acquired in respect of a Performance Right before the record date for determining entitlements to the bonus issue, then the number of Shares the subject of the Performance Right shall be:

12.1.3 increased by the number of Shares which the Participant would have received if the Participant had exercised the Performance Right prior to such record date; or 12.1.4 adjusted in a manner determined by the Board and in accordance with the Listing Rules, in order to minimise or eliminate any material advantage or disadvantage to an Eligible Employee.

Reorganisations

If there is any reorganisation of capital of the Company (whether before or after the Performance Rights have vested) then the number of Performance Rights to which each Participant is entitled will be adjusted in a manner determined by the Board and in accordance with the Listing Rules, in order to minimise or eliminate any material advantage or disadvantage to an Eligible Employee.

Fractions

For the purposes of this rule 12, if Performance Rights are exercised simultaneously, then the Participant may aggregate the number of Shares or fractions of Shares for which the Participant is entitled to subscribe. Fractions in the aggregate number only will be disregarded in determining the total entitlements of a Participant.

New Performance Rights on same terms as existing Performance Rights

For the purposes of this rule 12, if any Performance Rights are granted to an Eligible Employee due to an adjustment, those [5819662: 10012010_2]

Performance Rights will be subject to the same terms and conditions as the original Performance Rights, including without limitation, any Vesting Condition.

Participation in external opportunities

If, during the life of any Performance Right, securities of any other corporation are offered or otherwise made available to the Company's shareholders generally, the Company will use its best endeavours to ensure that the Eligible Employee is given an opportunity to participate on the same basis as if he or she had then held the Shares the subject of the Performance Rights.

Board decisions final

Any calculations or adjustments which are required to be made under this rule 12 will be made by the Board and will, in the absence of manifest error, be final and conclusive and binding on the Company and the Participant.

13. Administration of the Plan

Administration

The Plan shall be administered by the Board which has the power to:

- 13.1.1 determine appropriate procedures and make regulations for the administration of the Plan which are consistent with these rules;
- 13.1.2 resolve conclusively all questions of fact or interpretation arising in connection with the Plan;
- 13.1.3 terminate or suspend the operation of the Plan at any time, provided this termination or suspension does not adversely affect the rights of Participants holding Performance Rights at that time;
- 13.1.4 delegate such functions and powers as it may consider appropriate for the efficient administration of the Plan to any person or persons capable of performing those functions and exercising those powers; and
- 13.1.5 take and rely upon independent professional or expert advice in or in relation to the exercise of any of their powers or discretions under these rules.

No contravention of the Corporations Act or the Listing Rules

Notwithstanding the terms of this Plan or the terms or conditions of any Offer or Performance Right, no Performance Right may be offered, granted or exercised if to do so would contravene the Corporations Act or the Listing Rules.

Board determinations

Where these rules provide for a determination, decision, approval or opinion of the Board, such determination, decision, approval or opinion may be made or given by the Board in its absolute discretion.

Rules for Eligible Employees outside of Australia

The Board may grant Performance Rights to Eligible Employees who are resident outside of Australia, and make rules, determine procedures and prepare documentation for the operation of the Plan which are not inconsistent with these rules to apply to Eligible Employees who are resident outside of Australia.

No fiduciary duties

Any power or discretion which is conferred on the Board by these rules may be exercised by the Board in the interests or for the benefit of the Company, and the Board is not, in exercising such power or discretion, under any fiduciary or other obligation to any other person.

Cost of administration

The Company shall pay all expenses, costs and charges incurred in its administration of the Plan.

14. Amendment to Rules

Amendment

Subject to the Listing Rules, the Board may at any time amend any of these rules or waive or modify the application of any of these rules in relation to any Participant.

Effect on outstanding Performance Rights

If the Board so determines, any amendment will apply to any outstanding Performance Rights as at the date on which the amendment has effect. No amendment will apply to any outstanding Performance Rights if such amendment would have a material adverse effect on the Participant (in respect of his or her outstanding Performance Rights) except where the purpose of the amendment is to ensure compliance with the Corporations Act or the Listing Rules.

15. Rights and obligations of participants

Other schemes

Participation in the Plan does not affect, and is not affected by, participation in any other scheme operated by a Group Company unless the terms of that other scheme provide otherwise.

Notice of changes

The Company must give to each Participant in accordance with the Listing Rules notice of any change to the terms of any Performance Rights held by the Participant or to the number of Shares which the Participant is entitled to subscribe for on exercise of a Performance Right.

No interest in Shares

A Participant shall have no interest in a Share the subject of a Performance Right held by the Participant unless and until the Share is issued or transferred to that Participant under these rules. An Eligible Employee's rights under the Plan are purely personal and contractual.

Tax

A Participant is responsible for any Tax liability arising in relation to any aspect of the Plan or its rights under it. No Group Company shall have any responsibility for any Tax assessed on any Participant in relation to any aspect of the Plan or its rights under it.

16. Notices and service

Notices may be given by the Company to Participants in such manner as the Board may from time to time determine. Any notice required to be given to an Eligible Employee under these rules shall be deemed to have been given if served personally on the Eligible Employee or left at his or her last known place of residence.

17. Governing law and jurisdiction

These rules and the rights and obligations of Participants are governed by the laws of the State of Victoria. Each Participant irrevocably and unconditionally submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of Victoria and courts entitled to hear appeals from those courts.

18. Advice

Eligible Employees should obtain their own independent advice at their own expense on the financial, taxation and other consequences to them of or relating to participation in the Plan.
